constitution shortly, the Dy Comm recommends that the following Associations which now enjoy the privilege of nominating a member may be asked authorised to exercise the privileges

	Associations	No of members
1.	The Mysore Chamber of Commerce	72
2.	The Whitefield Settlers' Association	35
3.	The Lingayat Educational Fund	273
4.	The Law Association	60
5.	The Central Mahomedan Association	271
6.	The Vokkaligara Sangha	163

2) Thirteen Associations have applied for the franchise and the particulars relating to their membership etc are given in the Statement attached to the paper under discussion. Only 6 seats on the Mr Bd have to be filled by members to be returned by recognised Associations under the rules, the Associations for purposes of recognition should ordinarily have at least 100 subscribing members but in special cases Govt may relax that rule.

Submitted for orders.

3) The Dy. Commr. is in favour of continuing the privilege to the six Associations that are already represented on the District Board. It appears desirable to extend the privilege to some of the Associations which are not now represented, but it is difficult to see how this could be done unless the Constitution of the Board is changed.
